Collecting Your Items

A bulletin board will be posted in each section of the Silent Auction tent with the winners' names listed by item 15 minutes after the closing time(s). To find out if you are the successful bidder please check this board.

If you are the successful bidder please follow these easy steps to claim your prize:

Step 1

Collect both the white and the green auction card from one of the volunteers in the Silent Auction tent. If you are the winner of a Live Auction item, you will be given green and white auction cards upon your successful bid.

Step 2

Bring both the auction cards to the payment tent.

Step 3

After you have paid for your items you will get back the green auction card marked paid (or with a paid credit card slip attached).

Step 4

Bring the green auction card marked paid (or with a paid credit card slip attached) back to the auction tent where a volunteer will help you collect your winning item(s).

You are welcome to collect all your cards and pay at one time if you are bidding on a number of items through the afternoon.

Cash, cheque, Visa, MasterCard, American Express & Discover are accepted.

Have a great afternoon selecting your favourite items, and may the highest bidder win!

Live Auction Description

Bidding on items L-01 to L-15 will start at 4:45pm

L-01 Rosamond Bechtel 'Back to the Sea' 24" x 24"

Born in Montreal, raised in the Maritimes, Roz is the happiest and most grounded in places that have a shoreline and this comes out regularly in her calm oil landscapes. Her education incorporates design, illustration and fine art which enables Roz to capture the setting for a painting. She studies the continuous change of sky, water and shoreline, mostly on the Atlantic coast, inspiring paintings that have found their way into galleries, homes and offices in Ontario, B.C., Quebec, her beloved Nova Scotia and PEI, and far away.

L-02 Speaking of Dinner Parties

You used to know him as Mr. Speaker. These days he's just plain Peter. Canada's former Speaker of the House of Commons - and Kingston and the Islands MP - Peter Milliken will welcome your party of four into his home to share a gourmet meal prepared by local celebrity chef, Clark Day.

L-03 Ad-avantageous

Vault your business into the public eye with this spectacular ad package from Sun Media. Includes a full colour, half page in the Kingston Whig-Standard, and full pages in Kingston Life magazine and Kingston This Week donated by Sun Media Kingston.

L-04 Fashionista Fling

It's the ultimate VIP experience: a private shopping excursion at House of Angelis. Outfit yourself from head to toe with a total of $1,000 to spend ($500 for clothing and $500 for shoes, lingerie or accessories) while enjoying drinks and nibbles with up to 6 friends. Both savory and sweet treats will be served along with champagne, while you refresh your look with new additions to your wardrobe and a quick mini makeover courtesy of CHIC Hair & Esthetics.

L-05 A Meal with a View

What's more spectacular: a delicious locally-sourced dinner-complete with wine pairings - or the sight of the sun setting over Lake Ontario? Find out for yourself as your party of eight enjoys dinner on the waterfront at AquaTerra by Clark.

L-06 Guitar Hero

Own a piece of musical memorabilia and live out all of your rock n' roll fantasies with this Cort G-Series electric guitar, perfect for musicians of all skill levels. Donated by Kingston Guitar Shop and autographed by Kingston's own The Tragically Hip.

L-07 Going Whole Hog

Are you ready to pig out? Bring a little Southern style to the Great White North when you host a catered Sunday afternoon barbecue for 50-75 people, complete with a whole roast pig and all the trimmings, compliments of Western Cut Southern Style BBQ.

L-08 Designer Original

Fare for Friends co-founder Joanne Langlois' Twirl Designs dresses and tights featuring the paintings of local artists have become the ultimate Kingston fashion statement. Now Joanne has teamed up with Susanne Langlois to create a custom Twirl Designs dress just for you - made with fabric featuring Susanne's Fare for Friends poster artwork and custom tailored to fit the lucky winner.

L-09 Beth ten Hove

Beth works full time as a professional artist creating abstract landscapes. "I live and work on a lake that calls my name every day - inviting me into her deep knowing of light and shadow, movement and stillness. My response to her call is in itself 'water play', as I mix bright fluid acrylics generously with water directly on the surface of a canvas. My canvas lays flat on the table in my studio, like the lake on a calm day, quietly waiting for the dance to begin. I am fascinated by how water alters pigment and responds to the movement of my hands and in apparent stillness there is always motion."

L-10 Cellar's Market

You'll find the perfect pairing for any meal in this collection of exquisite fine wine, carefully curated by wine connoisseur Clark Day and generously donated by Taylor Auto Mall.

L-11 Take It to the Airwaves - TV & Radio Style

Get your message out to the people who need to hear it with eighteen 30-second television commercials-including production- aired on a one-week rotation on Kingston's only commercial television station, CKWS-TV. Also included: fifteen 40 combo radio spots on all Corus stations. Donated by Corus Entertainment Inc.

L-12 Happy Meal

What's better than hosting a dinner party for a few of your closest friends? How about a no-hassle dinner party for 8 in your home, catered by one of the region's top chefs? Includes food, preparation, clean-up and service with a smile. Donated and created by Jack the Happy Chef.

L-13 Heather Haynes

Inspired by the time she's spent in Africa, Heather Haynes has been using her art - including this 30" x 30" acrylic on canvas - to introduce Canadians to the beauty of its landscape, and especially its people. When she isn't busy raising awareness and building schools and houses for children in Africa, Heather can be found in her studio or at her gallery across from the Market Square.

L-14 Dining Al Fresco

If you like food and you like parties, you'll love this delicious dinner party prepared for your group of 8 by Barry and Alicia Gordon. Enjoy the view of the Catarauqui River and the Village of Barriefield while sipping on red or white wine, dining on appetizers and a full steak dinner with all the fixings. To finish, top it all off with a delicious homemade pie and a stroll around the village. Includes limo transportation both ways courtesy of Tompkins Funeral Home. Valid anytime from June to September 2015.

L-15 Susanne Langlois

Susanne is a Kingston-based artist whose paintings and drawings are fresh, vibrant and peaceful. Susanne first began painting while studying at McGill University. She then moved to Toronto where she was a fashion designer and co-owner of Eza Wear clothing. Susanne has recently returned to her hometown of Kingston with her family. The subjects of her paintings range from still-lives and abstracts to landscapes featuring the wind turbines of Wolfe Island. Her work can currently be viewed on display at the Frontenac Club Inn in Kingston, online, or by appointment.

ARTISTS OF UNITED WAY

Bidding on items A-01 to A-10

will close at 4:15pm

ART

A-01 Bonnie Brooks 'Cedar Shore' 24" x 36"

Bonnie Brooks has been exploring the freedom and challenge of mixed media techniques since 2008. 'Cedar Shore' exemplifies the hauntingly vivid detail that these techniques can yield. Over the years, Bonnie has exhibited locally at the old Brock Street Gallery, Gallery Raymond, Mad Dog Gallery, and Gallery Perth.

A-02 Sarah Hunter 'Gentle Sky' 12" x 9"

The Ontario landscape continues to inspire Sarah Hunter, who created this encaustic to capture a simple, yet complex moment in an Ontario winter. After a 20-year career as a designer and illustrator in England, Sarah moved to Canada in 2003, and has been working with the encaustic technique ever since. You can see more of her work at Gallery Raymond and Gallery at the Porch Door.

A-03 Zillah Loney 'Circle Games' 16" x 12"

Light, fanciful, and expressive, this watercolour by Perth Road Village artist Zillah Loney showcases her background in printmaking, drawing, and design, and her sophisticated, playful style. It also calls to mind the vibrant life of the Eastern Townships of Quebec, where she lived for 25 years. Zillah exhibits locally at the Robert Macklin Gallery and the Agnes Etherington Art Centre.

A-04 Sharon Thompson 'Summer Marsh' 35" x 22"

The interplay of opposites, a theme in Sharon Thompson's work, is evident in 'Summer Marsh', her oil on canvas that captures both the serene stillness and the restless movement of the Ontario wilderness. Sharon has exhibited locally at Modern Fuel, Verb Gallery, and the Sandra Whitton Gallery, among others.

A-05 Liz Rae Dalton 'Three Sisters' 23.5" x 8.5"

Howe Island isn't just Liz Rae Dalton's home, it's also her inspiration. This limited edition, archival collectible reproduction of 'Three Sisters' is one of only 100 made by the artist. Like all of her work, it celebrates the history, heritage, and lifestyles of the Thousand Islands. You can see more of Liz's work at the Art After Dark exhibit in Downtown Kingston on September 26th.

A-06 Robert Blenderman 'Vincent Out on the Town' 12" x 9"

Since he began his painting career more than a quarter century ago, Robert Blenderman has been known for his vibrant colours. While he may be better known for his abstracts and cityscapes, 'Vincent Out on the Town' highlights Robert's gift for portraiture. He has exhibited at Studio Twenty Two, Studio 737, and Gallery ArtPlus in Kingston. His book, Kingston, A City in Canada, is available through local book sellers.

A-07 Sally Chupick 'Evening Shadows' 13.5" x 10.5"

Although she does most of her work in oils, Sally Chupick turned to watercolour to bring out the beauty of the local landscape in Evening Shadows. A native of Nova Scotia, Sally spends most of her time in her Elginburg studio, where, when she's not painting, she teaches weekly painting classes and operates the Gallery at the Porch Door. You can also see her work at Kingston Frameworks and the Kingston Glass Studio & Gallery.

A-08 Peggy Morley 'Yellow Tulips IV' 24" x 24"

Everyday objects take on new life when they pass through the filter of Peggy Morley's imagination. In Yellow Tulips IV, Peggy brings a simple flower arrangement to bold, colourful, layered life using the encaustic technique. Her work is on display in corporate collections at Queen's, Corrections Canada, and Empire Life. She has exhibited locally at the Agnes Etherington Art Centre and Gallery Raymond.

A-09 Jane Derby 'Amid the Garbage and the Flowers' 12" x 18"

Made from automotive paint on plaster and recycled tin cans, 'Amid the Garbage and the Flowers' is part of Jane Derby's latest series, in which she experiments with cans found in kitchen cupboards and pushes their natural aesthetic into new territories. She has shown her work locally at the Sandra Whitton Gallery and Pan Chancho Bakery, and in group exhibitions.

A-10 Lynn Wallack - Maraczi 'Earthbound' 10"x10"

Montreal-born, but a resident of Kingston for over 26 years, Lynn is a local artist who works with metal embossing, creating handcrafted greeting cards and paints with acrylics. She enjoys using using many different mediums to create abstracts with texture.
